The Children's Aid Society of Toronto aims to provide the highest quality of service to children, youth and families. If you have sought or received service from our Agency and have a concern or complaint, we want to hear from you so that we can work together to find a solution.

To report a concern or complaint, we encourage you to begin with our four-step Early Resolution Process.

If through the Early Resolution Process we are unable to resolve the matter you can initiate a Formal Complaint Process.

Please note, you are not required to use the Early Resolution Process and can begin the Formal Complaint Process at any time.

EARLY RESOLUTION PROCESS

1 Connect with your Worker

You can begin the Early Resolution Process by sharing your concern or complaint directly with your Worker to determine if there is an explanation or solution.

If doing so is difficult, we encourage you to ask a family member, friend or community agency for help.

2 Connect with a Supervisor

If your concern or complaint is not resolved, you can talk to a Supervisor. The Supervisor will be in touch with you to try to resolve your concern or complaint.

3 Connect with a Director

If the Supervisor is unable to resolve your concern, you may connect with a Director.

The Director will meet with you to better understand the situation. Within 2 weeks of the meeting, the Director will contact you to share possible resolutions and next steps.

4 Connect with a Manager, Client Services

If your concern or complaint is not resolved in Step 3, you can connect with a Manager, Client Services who will talk with you about your concern and offer suggestions for how to resolve it. This may include mediating with you and your service team to reach a solution.

FORMAL COMPLAINT PROCESS

You can begin a Formal Complaint Process at any time by engaging our Internal Complaints Review Panel and/or the Child and Family Services Review Board.

Internal Complaints Review Panel
